Little Cub are Dominic Gore, Duncan Tootill and Ady Acolatse. Merging a wry, worldly and subversive form of self-effacing, diarist lyricism with sumptuously evocative electronic production, «Loveless» announces the arrival of a band at once deeply in tune with the greatest traditions of progressive, homespun British pop music and at odds with the increasingly vacuous pop culture they are born to.

Little Cub's burgeoning reputation as one of the city's finest new exponents of electronic pop has seen them sell out a four-night headline residency at Peckham's Copeland Estate off the back of the release of their debut «Breathing Space» EP.

«Loveless» showcases Little Cub at their direct best, harnessing Tootill's astute production work – which has seen him work with the likes of George Fitzgerald, Lil Silva and more – to frontman Gore's refreshingly self-reflexive, honest and occasionally uncomfortable poetics.

«Loveless» will be released as part of the «Loveless» 12" including 3 reworked versions of the track.
